

During this time of war, share what you believe is

WORTH REMEMBERING.

Monday, November 10, 2008 (6:00-8:00 p.m.)
Friends Congregational Church
2200 Southwood Drive
College Station, TX 77845

Hosted by

The Arts Council of Brazos Valley, Project HOLD, Museum of the American G.I., Honorthenames.com, Gulfwarmemorial.com, and Friends Congregational Church

What is WORTH REMEMBERING? The event is a public reading of personal reflections. Its goal is to present the diversity of war's impact on our lives.

What WORTH REMEMBERING is not: The event is neither a platform for supporting military activities nor a call to oppose them.

How can you participate? Please enrich our forum by submitting one or more of the following (500-word maximum/submission):

- An original essay, story, or poem
- A selection of another's published work that best reflects your experiences
- Correspondence to/from a friend or loved one in the military OR to/from someone else affected by war

Submissions may be mailed or emailed and are due no later than October 15, 2008. Include your full name, mailing address, phone number, and email address:

Cheryl Clements

7598 River Ridge Dr.

College Station, TX 77845

OR submission.acbv@yahoo.com

All work appropriate for the forum and for a general audience will be accepted. If you would like a volunteer to read your piece for you, please note that on your submission. For more information, contact submission.acbv@yahoo.com.